Subject: Consignments Accepted for Upcoming Antique Roadshow and Auction

OLEAN -- The Jamestown Community College Cattaraugus County Campus Alumni Association and the Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce, Inc. will host the second annual Olean Public Auction and the Olean Antique Roadshow on Saturday, August 2 at JCC's Cutco Theater. The Antique Roadshow will have appraisals from 9 - 11:30 AM, with the auction underway at 11:30 AM.

Gather up an antique or collectable for this new part of the weekend, the Olean Antique Roadshow. Participants may bring small antiques or collectible items for appraisal, anything from jewelry to artwork. Photos of furniture may be brought in for appraisal of the pieces. The fee for appraisals are one item $5.00, three items $10.00. The Olean Antique Roadshow is in not way affiliated with the popular Antiques Roadshow television series on the Public Television System.

The Public Auction will follow the Antique Roadshow. Last year, the auction featured a Fredrick Remington Bronze on Marble; Mahogany Corner China Cabinet with Spade Feet; Framed Icart Painting; and Deco Style Child Candlesticks. Consignments are still being accepted for the Auction. Key and unique items should be consigned right away. Pictures and descriptions are needed and is a requirement for these items. Some of these key and unique items will be displayed in the auction catalog. "We are excited to join JCC in another great venture that has become an annual occurrence. The auction is an unexpected opportunity to grab some history -- whether it's memorabilia from Olean past, stamps, coins, even furniture. This auction is the chance to browse through
